Indianapolis Cultural Trail: A Legacy of Gene & Marilyn Glick

Traffic restrictions on Virginia Avenue from South Street to the I-65 bridge are in place. Traffic has been moved further to the west side of Virginia Avenue (still one lane in each direction), and the contractor will set up barrels and arrow boards on the east side of Virginia Avenue and start working on the curb ramps at some of the intersecting streets to the east of Virginia Avenue next week. This work will take another week to complete.

On the Central Corridor (Washington Street), maintenance of traffic (from Capitol Avenue to West Street) has been set up, moving the vehicles to the southern lanes. Work is continuing on the north side of Washington Street installing plants. The sidewalk and curb ramps at the northwest corner of West Street and Washington Street have been removed, and the new plaza will be installed next week. The pedestrian access will be detoured around this construction. On Monday, November 12,, milling of the existing asphalt surface will start on Washington Street between Capitol Avenue and West Street. This milling will occur during the day, and the contractor plans to mill half of the pavement from Capitol Avenue to West Street and pave the same half the next day (weather permitting). The contractor will repeat this procedure until they are complete. Final pavement markings will follow this operation.
